

CRD 290 -- COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT SPEAKERS SERIES

SPRING QUARTER 2024

Wednesday, 12:40 – 1:30 PM

142 Hunt Hall CRN: 36016

This is a one-credit lecture series which for Spring 2024 will showcase the work of second-year Community Development Graduate Group students developing their theses or exam proposals. Each student will present their topic, research, and interesting theory or data related to these. If time permits we'll then have further class discussion of the topic.

We meet every Wednesday 12:30-1:40 in 166 Hunt Hall. (NOTE: The time is 30 minutes later than usual due to the instructor's schedule.) Faculty and community members are invited to attend as well as students enrolled in the course. Please plan to arrive on time, as this is courteous to our speakers.

For those taking CRD 290 for credit, attendance will be taken at the beginning of each session. If you must miss a session, please let the instructor know in advance. Those who miss more than two sessions without advance warning will not receive credit.

There is one written requirement for the course: a two-page, double-spaced paper due by noon 6/10/24 reflecting on a theme that struck you during the presentations and mentioning at least three of the speakers.

My office hours are Wed 8:45-10:45 or by appointment. There's a signup at <https://calendly.com/smwheeler/office-hours-prof-wheeler>, Links to an external site. or if those times don't work just email me at smwheeler@ucdavis.edu.
